Many jumped to the roofs of adjacent buildings, and then to sidewalks, receiving fatal injuries. Six infants were thrown from the windows into the arms of the police and firemen. In their panic the tenants paid little heed to the ladders or the fire nets.

Fire Marshal Kelley says that the fire was the result of a black hand attempt at extortion. Two men were seen rolling a barrel into the hallway ten minutes before the fire broke out. Two explosions occurred the minute the fire alarm was turned in. The building is a fire trap, like many others in the same neighborhood. The dead are all Italians.
